

Exhibition raises awareness of disabled

Whangarei residents Jane Winton and Eileen Piggot-Irvine check out photographs in the 'Our Stories' exhibition now open at Reyburn House.

The travelling exhibition of black and white photos, commissioned by CCS Christchurch and taken by Hanne Johnsen, aims to bring awareness of disabilities to the community.

Primary school classes have been invited to the gallery to view the exhibition and learn more about people with disabilities.

The exhibition will be at Reyburn House until August 17 before it goes to the Douse Gallery in Wellington.
